

Dance Contest Selections Evoke Good Response

Express News Service

Vijayawada: Many youths thronged the Andhra Loyola College auditorium to enrol their names in the 7UP Dance for Me contest selections held on Saturday and Sunday.

As many as 28 teams participated in the selections on Saturday. Each team comprises seven members. Several girls' teams also took part in the selections.

PepsiCo regional assistant general manager Dayanand Jathi said the competition was the best platform for youngsters to showcase their dance talent. The prize money of the competition to be held in 21 cities across South India is Rs 51 lakh.

Two teams from each city will be eligible to participate in semi-finals in Hyderabad. The qualified teams will take part in the finals of the dance contest to be held in Chennai. The winners of the competition will get a chance to dance with actor Allu Arjun, he added.

Choreographer P Ramprasad acted as a judge in the selections. Dance master Dhanraj and others were also present.

College girls taking part in the 7UP Dance for Me contest selections held in Vijayawada on Sunday. | Ch Narayana Rao