Dance on with the Power Star

Express News Service

Bangalore: Dance enthusiasts now have a new platform to showcase their dancing talents with 'Dance On', which promises to be a package of fresh talent, infectious enthusiasm and spectacular dance performances.

Spread across 13 cities in Karnataka, Tamil Nadu and Kerala; Dance On, which is the latest campaign of a popular beverage, for which they have appointed Puneeth Rajkumar as the brand ambassador, offers a total prize money of ₹51 lakh.

Dance enthusiasts can register by getting seven PET labels or crowns of the beverage drink at their city auditions and participate in teams of three or more.

Short-listed teams will compete at the regional auditions that will be held in Chennai and Bangalore to qualify for the grand Finale.

The finale will be held in Chennai and will be judged by actors and brand ambassadors, Simbu and Puneeth.

Expressing his thoughts about 'Dance On', actor and brand ambassador Puneeth Rajkumar said, "Dance On is refreshing and empowering.

No matter what you are or what you do, Dance On will unleash the dancing spirit
