Everybody has a dance in them

Staff Reporter

BANGALORE: It's all about shaking your leg, and when it's at a contest endorsed and backed by actor Puneeth Rajkumar, it's all the more special.

Along with Mr. Rajkumar, actor Simbu will judge the 7UP dance competition, Dance On, being conducted in 34 towns across the State. The previous edition of this contest had over 1,200 teams participating. This year, organisers hope the response will be bigger. However, the teams are smaller with each team comprising not more than three members, compared to seven last year.

Speaking to The Hindu, Mr. Rajkumar said, "Dancing became a huge passion for me, despite there being absolutely no training. I believe that everybody has a dance in them and this is one of the best platforms to try and shake a leg. It will be a privilege to just watch all the performances, besides judging them."

And apart from the pleasure of dancing, the prize money on offer totals Rs.51 lakh.
