PepsiCo India

At PepsiCo, it is our constant endeavour to innovate and diversify our portfolio to offer both enjoyable and healthier offerings. The new Aliva range is baked and brings forth a unique combination of grains with great taste

C S Verma
Chairman
ICVL

NTPC did communicate that they want to exit. However, we have not heard anything from CIL. Let them make up their mind, then we will decide. In the event CIL also intends to exit, the board of the SPV has to take a call

Azim Premji
Chairman
Wipro

We are trying to create deals, rather than just react to deals which are lying with investment bankers, because we find our win rates are much higher. We want to supplement our growth rates there and go up the value chain

V Balakrishnan
Chief Financial Officer
Infosys

Our aim is to make all the subsidiaries self-sustaining in the medium to long term. However, if they require any short-term funds to meet their growth objectives, the parent company does provide loans
