INDIA HAS LOT OF FIZZ

Pepsico chairperson and CEO Indra Nooyi at the CII National Council Meeting in Mumbai. She expressed faith in the India growth story, saying she doesn't see any reason why it should lose sheen when fundamentals are strong.

'DO ANMOL RATAN': At the meeting, finance minister Chidambaram compared industrialist Ratan Tata to Master Blaster Sachin Tendulkar saying legends like them don't retire. "Men like Ratan don't retire. They just move on to doing different things," Chidambaram said while felicitating Tata with the CII President award. The finance minister said he admires Tata for his frugal lifestyle, for being a person of few words and creating wealth for millions. "Being a politician and lawyer I can only envy. I admire him for his passions and that he can look back and say he has fulfilled his passions," he said.
