

Mohali lads selected in Gatorade Pacers contest

■ CHANDIGARH: Vrinder Singh (U-19) and Maninder Sidhu (U-22), both medium-pacers from Mohali have been selected in the final list of Gatorade Pacers 2010 talent-hunt and acquired lifetime opportunity to hone their bowling skills at the ICC Global Cricket Academy (ICC GCA). Apart from them, Gurudas Shenoy of Mumbai (U-19) and Raman Chahar of Delhi (U-22) are the other two bowlers who have the final cut. The four aspiring pacers were chosen after an intense nation-wide one month-long talent search by Gatorade Pacers 2010, spearheaded by former Indian fast bowler Manoj Prabhakar. Former Aussie wicket-keeper cum batsman Rodney Marsh will head ICC GCA and train them for a week.
