

Business Standard

Pepsi doubles India investment

On the back of nine quarters of strong growth, beverages company PepsiCo has decided to double its investment to over $220 million (around Rs 1,000 crore) in the current calendar year to grow its beverage business in the country.