

News monitored for: Pepsi - Brands

DROGBA TO VISIT INDIA NEXT MONTH

NEW DELHI: Ivory Coast and Chelsea striker Didier Drogba will visit India next month for the grand finale of T20 Football event. The final winning team will get a once in a lifetime opportunity to be coached by Drogba, before they face the Indian cricketing stars in a fast paced game of T20 Football, a statement from the organisers said. Drogba, who has been a Pepsi brand ambassador since 2009, played a leading role in Chelsea's Champions League triumph over Bayern Munich last week. "To take the excitement around our grassroots initiative, Pepsi T20 Football to the next level, we are proud to bring one of the world's most exciting footballer, Didier Drogba to India," said Homi Battiwalla, Category Director - Colas, Hydration and Mango Based Beverages, PepsiCo India. "Over 448 teams have played the 20-minute knock-out matches over the last few weeks. The winning teams across cities are now gearing up for the national finale scheduled to take place on 17th June in Delhi," he said.