INDIAN cricket captain Mahendra Singh Dhoni will be seen with Bollywood actor Ranbir Kapoor in Pepsi's latest ad campaign ahead of the ICC World Twenty20 Championships starting September 18 in Sri Lanka.

"The campaign revolves around the passionate spirit of the young Indian Twenty20 cricket fans who enjoy watching the exciting format with the same irrepressible and unorthodox fervour reflected in the cricketers' game on-field. A cricket fan himself, Ranbir shows the cricketers, including Dhoni, Virat Kohli and Suresh Raina the 'Na Tameez' the irreverent and zany side of T20 fans," the company said in a statement.

Dhoni said he enjoyed shooting the commercial.

"It was a great experience shooting the commercial with Ranbir Kapoor, our celebrated cricketers and more importantly the fans of the sport."

Ranbir Kapoor said the new ad would be entertaining.
